

Introduction To Communications Data

1 DAY COURSE  CPD Accredited

For Intelligence Analysts,
Researchers & Investigators

This course provides a comprehensive overview of communications data, from its acquisition through to its use in aiding investigations and enhancing operational decision making.

This course is delivered by our accredited training partner, Cloudbreak Analysis.

Training Style

This course is composed of a series of informative lectures and videos. It is delivered by a communications data expert with over 30 years of policing experience.

Learning Outcomes

Prerequisites

None

Define the processes and legislation that underpin the acquisition and use of communications data

Know the types of data available under existing legislation and it can be successfully utilised within investigations

Understand the impact of the Investigatory Powers Act (2016)

Outline network features and data acquisition opportunities in relation to IP networks and Wi-Fi providers

Recognise the critical role data plays in evidence and the importance of evidential attribution in a case

Understand mobile phone network features and identify data acquisition opportunities for use in investigations.

Interpret current data sets from different communications service providers and apply that interpretation to help make informed decisions