

Open Source Intelligence (OSINT)

2 DAY COURSE  CPD Accredited

For Intelligence Analysts,
Researchers & Investigators

This course focuses on investigating people, companies, and websites of interest. Participants learn little-known techniques that will enhance their operational work. Taught techniques & tools are free and work globally.

This course is delivered by our accredited training partner, Cloudbreak Analysis.

Training Style

This is a hands-on course focused on application. Our course trainers are cleared subject matter experts who maintain currency by regularly undertaking OSINT investigations.

Learning Outcomes

Prerequisites
Basic IT literacy

Recognise the origin and benefits of Open Source Intelligence

Maintain online security and anonymity

Conduct advanced searches in Google and Bing

Investigate and exploit Apps

Monitor content, construct and save complex searches with free tools

Understand crypto currencies such as Bitcoin

Verify OSINT and find origins of content on the web

Know the best browsers and extensions for intelligence investigations

Understand the legalities of OSINT and know a range of tools that provide evidential capture.

Conduct video and image searches and exploit metadata

Find timely news content from local and international press

Utilise leaked data

Conduct effective investigations into companies and websites

Retrieve deleted content