

Our Brand Manifesto

Why We Exist

Industry-leading data cleansing and analysis tool for law enforcement.

Analyse automatically cleanses, combines and connects any digital data to answer key investigative questions immediately using mapping, visualisation and evidential reports.

Analyse

Empowerment Through Data

We simplify and enhance the integrity of data by providing industry-leading investigative software that enables our customers to confidently turn data into intelligence and evidence.

Our Mission

Simplifying data for a safer world.

What We Do

We are a trusted supplier of data cleansing and analysis software for law enforcement, government agencies and financial institutions across the globe.

A self-service tool for investigators.

Investigate allows investigators to quickly get answers from their data and instantly see the who, what, where, and when of a case at the push of a button.

Investigate

We Share In Our Customers' Success

There's no better feeling than knowing we have helped customers solve an investigation, stop exploitation or find a missing person. This is what drives us every day.

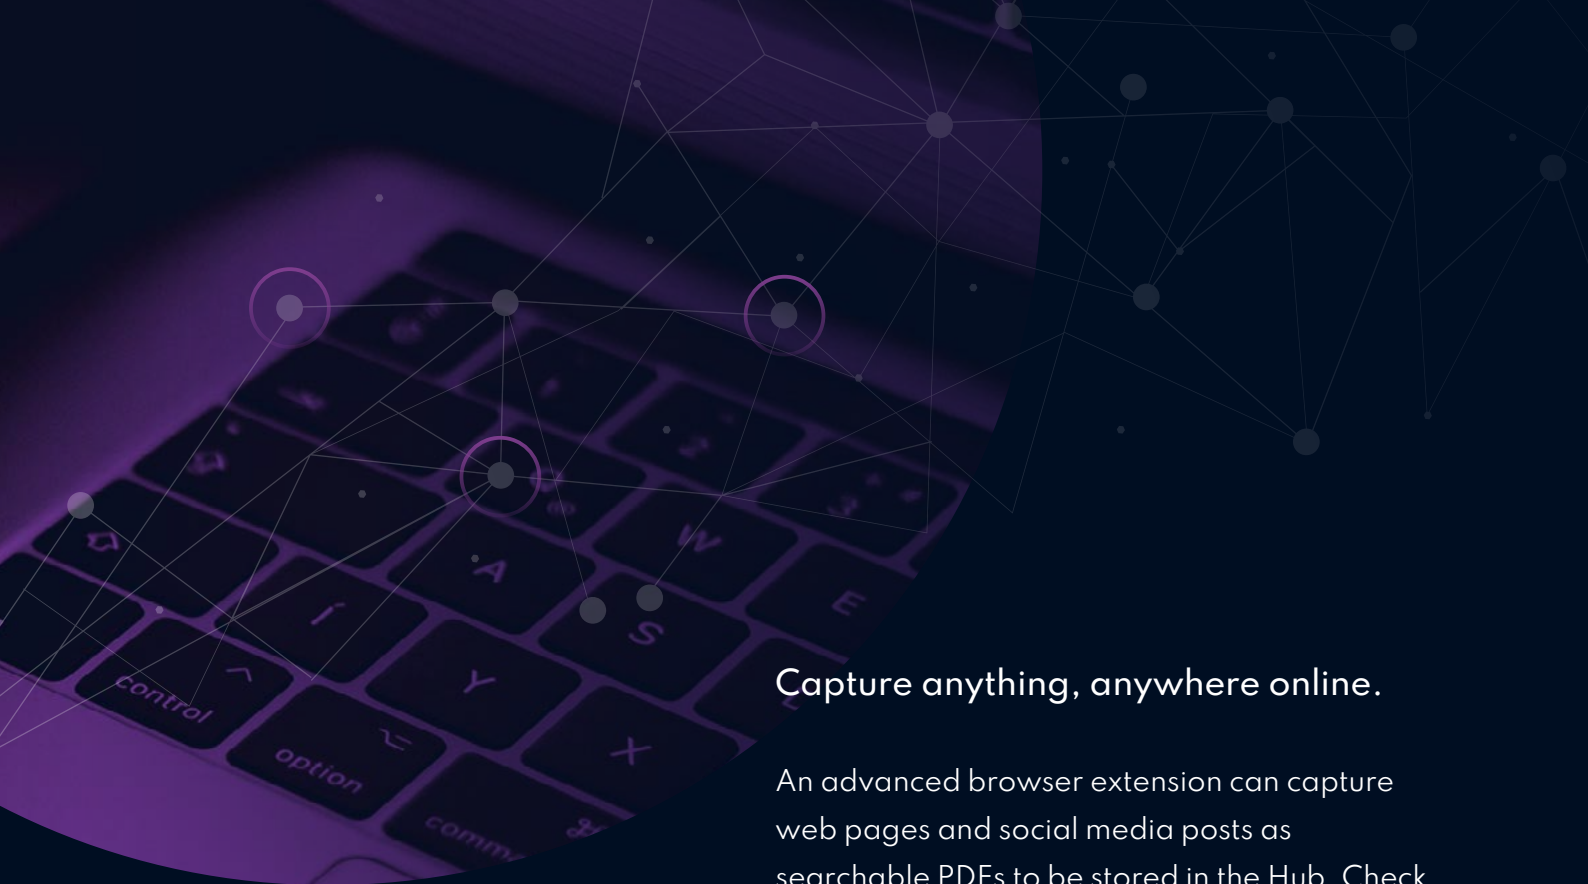

We Don't Just Listen To Our Customers

All of our products have been developed in partnership with our customers. We continually evolve and enhance our products to solve their challenges.

Expertise Combined With Experience

Our entire team are experts in their field. We combine ex-law enforcement Analysts, Investigators and open source experts with software developers that specialise in police and financial data.

Capture anything, anywhere online.

An advanced browser extension can capture web pages and social media posts as searchable PDFs to be stored in the Hub. Check your external identity and remain anonymous when searching on-line.

An Integrated Approach

Our suite of products provides a fully-integrated solution for digital intelligence and investigative challenges.

Our Core Values

Empathy

Our intelligence and investigative experience help us to understand the challenges our customers face and make it simpler to overcome them.

Customer-Driven

We listen to customers and develop products based on their feedback, while being flexible to the different approaches of every organisation.

Integrity

Data integrity is at the heart of everything we do. Without it, we would risk the liberty of individuals and the reputation of our customers.

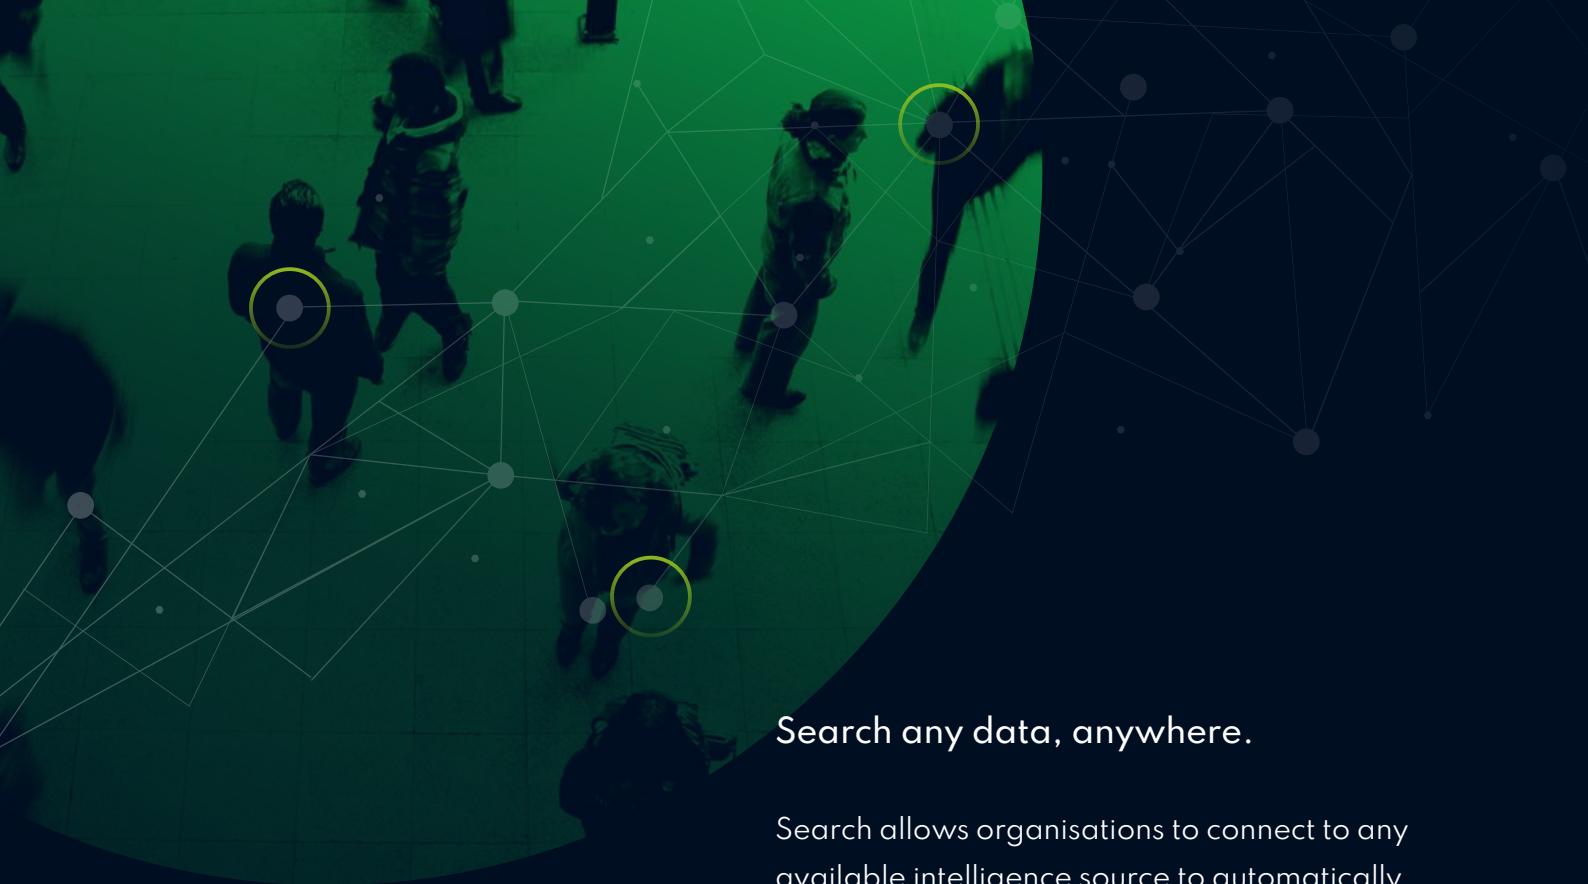

Transparency

We have a moral and professional duty to be transparent in the way we handle, process and present data.

Dedicated To Being Ahead Of The Curve

Our dedication to revolutionising the intelligence industry means we're always developing ways to further enhance our service and products.

Search any data, anywhere.

Search allows organisations to connect to any available intelligence source to automatically query data and uncover links between people, objects, locations, and events.
